Notice Regarding Revision of Dividends Forecast and Management Indicators (KPIs) of Dividends

Under the Medium-Term Management Plan

MEITO CO.,LTD. (the “Company”) hereby announces that, on October 14, 2025, the Board of Directors resolved to revise the dividend per share forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026, and the management indicators (KPIs) of the dividends under the Medium-Term Management Plan, as described below.

1. Reasons for the revision

In the Medium-Term Management Plan “MEITO CHALLENGE 2026,” the Company upholds “improving earning power and capital efficiency” and “ensuring continuous and stable shareholder returns” as priority measures and has been engaged in initiatives to strengthen management that is conscious of human capital, cost of capital, and stock price. In determining matters such as the appropriation of surplus, the Company’s basic profit distribution policy is to maintain and continuously pay stable dividends to shareholders, while steadily making investments for future growth and striving to enhance profitability and improve capital efficiency. The Company also continuously pays progressive dividends as part of these efforts.

Under this policy, the Company, in light of current performance trends and the business environment going forward, as well as in an effort to express its gratitude to the ongoing support of the shareholders, plans to revise the year-end dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026, by raising the previous forecast of ¥20 per share by ¥5 to ¥25 for a total annual dividend of ¥45.

Furthermore, in conjunction, the management indicators (KPIs) of the dividends under the Medium-Term Management Plan will be revised to ¥45 for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026 (Forecast) and ¥50 for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027 (Target).
